§ 1 GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1.1 The basis for the charge is the maximum length of the vessel (LOA) and for a passenger vessel in regular liner traffic additionally the net tonnage (NT) of the vessel. The vessel charge per call for a passenger ship in regular traffic is calculated by multiplying the respective price unit with the maximum length of the vessel (LOA) and with the net tonnage (NT) of the vessel, and thereafter adding the sums. The minimum rate, however, shall always be charged (§2, section 1).

The basis for calculation is valid for each specific calendar year and vessel, however so that a vessel owned by the same shipping company can change the route or be replaced by another vessel without this breaking the calculation of the charge.

When introducing new liner traffic, the above mentioned period of eleven (11) months may fall on two consecutive years.

Interruptions due to force majeure, annual overhaul, change or sales of a vessel do not break the regular traffic of the vessel.

If a vessel not in traffic returns to regular liner traffic on Mariehamn from lay-up or docking, the charge for regular traffic is applied from the vessel's first call at Port of Mariehamn.

If a vessel not in traffic returns from other traffic, the charge for non-regular traffic will be applied for the first 30 days, thereafter the charge for regular liner traffic will commence.

Vessels changing liner traffic, but calling at Port of Mariehamn without interruption, will be charged for regular traffic.

Port of Mariehamn has the right, when there are sufficient grounds, to not accept an interruption of regular traffic.
